

Tag	As a....	I want to....	so that....	Sprint	Acceptance Criteria	Story Points	🔄	Status
US01	User	be able to track daily calories	I can monitor my weight and food intake	1	- There is backend support for a user's daily calorie log - User can input foods they have eaten - User can select recommended meals and have it automatically be added to the calorie tracker - Calories eaten can be viewed as numbers or as a graph	11		Not started
US02	User	be able to track calories over time	I can monitor food intake over time	1	- There is a screen for weekly and monthly calorie intake - User can view a graph of their food intake over a week or month	5		Not started
US06	User	be able to enter my health goal	NutriAI can calculate my recommended daily calorie intake	1	- User inputs height, weight, sex, birth date, and activity level - App calculates daily calorie target - User can edit health goal and activity level at any time	5		In progress
US07	User	create an account so that I can save my nutrition data	NutriAI can recommend my meals based on my profile	1	- User creates an account and enters their name, email, password - App prompts them with health/diet questions to build their profile	5		Completed
US08	User	enter dietary restrictions and allergies as that recommendations are safe.	To avoid any allergic reactions	1	- During account creation/profile setup, the app will ask them their dietary restrictions and allergies	3		Completed
US09	User	track my weight and progress over time	I can see whether NutriAI is helping me reach my goals	1	- User will be required to enter their weight daily through the daily logs page - System will keep track of each log and show user a chart to see their progress	3		Completed
US15	Administrator	maintain a database of users	I can monitor site activity and understand user population	1	- User schema designed in database - User schema implemented in database - Users are able to sign into our app	8		Completed
US23	User	the system to calculate my BMI using my height and weight	I can understand if my weight is in a healthy range	1	- When a user enters height and weight and clicks calculate BMI, the system sends a request to the api for the BMI value - The system returns a calculated BMI value - The BMI value is displayed on the profile summary panel. - The BMI category is shown (Underweight, Normal Weight, Overweight, Obese) - If height or weight is missing, the system shows an error message.	3		Completed
US24	User	the system to calculate my energy score	I can understand my current energy level based on my habits.	1	- When the user clicks Calculate BMI and Energy, the system sends a request to the API - The API returns an energy score between 0-100 - The energy score updates the Energy Meter Progress bar - If the API fails, an error message is displayed.	5		Completed
US25	User	a profile page where I can enter and update my personal health information.	the app can store my information, calculate my BMI, energy level	1	- When a user navigates to the profile page, they can enter personal health information such as height and weight.	5		Completed
US26	User	the system to save my profile and load my data automatically.	I don't have to re-enter my health information every time.	1	- When the profile page loads, the system calls api/profile - If a profile exists, the form fields are populated with saved values	3		In progress
US03	User	tell NutriAI what I am craving	that my meal plan can adapt while also support my goals	2	- There is a button on the dashboard that says I'm Craving... - When clicked the user will be prompted with "Sweet", "Savory", "Salty", etc. - When they choose what they are craving, the system will suggest a recipe/snack while also adapting to the users goals	8		In progress
US04	User	tell NutriAI I am hungry	so that NutriAI can quickly suggest a meal that meets my goals	2	- There is a button on the dashboard that says I'm Hungry... - When clicked the user will be given a recipe based on their dietary restrictions and goals.	8		In progress
US05	User	be able to search for foods and/or recipes in a database	I can log meals quickly	2	- User can search recipes based on food - Calories are automatically added to tracker - Ability or option to adjust serving size	8		In progress
US10	User	update my health profile	my food recommendations can be as accurate as possible	2	- User can edit their height, occupation, goals, etc. - Updated data recalculates calorie targets - AI recommendations update accordingly	3		In progress
US11	User	NutriAI to learn which recommendations I actually use	future suggestions improve	2	- System records which recommendations are accepted and ignored - AI adjusts future recommendations based on acceptance rate - Frequently accepted meals will be prioritized	13		Not started
US13	User	NutriAI to suggest alternatives if I don't like the recommendation	I can quickly find something I like	2	- After NutriAI suggests an item, users can click suggest another - System generates a new recommendation - New recommendations will be different from previous suggestions - User can repeat this as many times as they like	3		Not started
US14	User	see when I usually eat my meals	I can understand my eating schedule	2	- System will log meal times - Charts will be shown to see trends over multiple days or weeks	5		Not started
US18	User	see a progress bar for my goal.	I can stay motivated to reach my target.	2	- Dashboard shows progress bar toward goal - progress bar updates when logs are added. - progress bar shows percent completed.	3		Not started
US16	User	NutriAI to motivate me when I'm fighting cravings.	I stay committed to my health goals.	2	- When a user selects craving a motivational message is displayed. - When a user selects craving the app offers suggestions the redirects the user want - When a user selects craving it checks to see if they are actually craving and not hunger and redirect the user - When a user selects craving it reminds the user of their end goal, and display their progress or short com - When a user selects craving they can tell the app what they are craving and the app offers a better health - When a user selects the craving button they can see a log of their cravings, frequency, and types of food - When a user selects craving they are asked if they successfully fought the craving or not and the system - When the user select craving they are provide with a list of distractions to help fight the craving.	15		Not started
US12	User	NutriAI to recommend healthier foods when I have a craving at night	I can avoid overeating before bed	3	- System detects the time a request was made - If the time is late at night, NutriAI suggests a lighter meal - Suggestions will prioritize low calorie snacks instead of meals	5		Not started
US17	User	have NutriAI analyze my diet.	I understand what nutrients I may be missing	3	- NutriAI analyzes foods logged in daily logs - The system compares intake with recommended nutrition values - NutriAI displays nutrient deficiencies to the user	8		Not started
US19	User	get meal ideas using ingredients I already have.	I can cook realistic meals without buying extra food.	3	- User can enter ingredients they have for more customized meals suggestions vs random ones. - NutriAI suggests meals using those ingredients. - Meals align with calorie goals and restrictions	8		Not started
US20	User	view a weekly nutrition summary.	I understand how well I followed my plan.	3	- NutriAI generates weekly report - Report shows calories and nutrient balance. - Report highlights patterns or trends.	5		Not started
US21	User	receive reminders to log meals.	I keep my food tracking accurate.	3	- The App detects when meals aren't logged. - The system sends reminder notifications to log meals - User can enable or disable reminders	5		Not started
US22	User	have NutriAI manage a guide my weight goals.	I can reach and maintain my target weight.	3	- User can set a target weight in their profile - System tracks weight entries over time - System alerts the user if weight changes too quickly or too slowly	3		Not started
		TOTAL:				156		